

Job description

Job title:	Resource Provision Lead – Communication & Interaction
Responsible to:	Assistant Principal
Responsible for:	Resource Provision - Communication & Interaction
Location:	Lift Kingsley

Overview of the role:

To provide high-quality teaching and support for pupils with Education, Health and Care Plans (EHCPs) whose primary need is communication and interaction.

As the lead of this provision, you will be delivering a broad and balanced curriculum, facilitating a positive learning environment where all students feel supported and encouraged to reach their full potential. This role is to specifically provide high-quality teaching and support for pupils with Education, Health and Care Plans (EHCPs) whose primary need is communication and interaction. The role includes delivering personalised learning, supporting inclusion within mainstream classrooms, and working collaboratively with staff, families, and external professionals.

This role contributes to the Lift Schools' mission that every child receives an excellent education, in every classroom, every day.

Responsibilities:

Teaching and learning

- Identify clear learning objectives, content, lesson structures and sequences, in order to plan and deliver engaging lessons to students with the appropriate amount of constructive challenge.
- Plan and deliver engaging, differentiated lessons tailored to pupils with communication and interaction needs, including autism.
- Adapt the curriculum to meet individual EHCP targets and learning profiles.
- Use structured teaching approaches, including TEACCH principles, to support independence and understanding.
- Use teaching strategies that engage students and enable them to master conceptual understanding, including stimulating students' intellectual curiosity and effective questioning and response.
- Understand and have knowledge of curriculum content to contribute to engaging curriculum design, developing schemes of work and suitable assessments for each learning cycle.
- Promote high standards of literacy, oracy and the correct use of standard English.
- Set homework to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding students have acquired.
- Create a structured, supportive, and low-arousal learning environment.
- Ensure resources and classroom organisation reflect TEACCH-informed practice.

Assessment and feedback

- Monitor, assess, and track pupil progress, ensuring provision aligns with EHCP outcomes
- Give students regular verbal and written feedback to respond to, guiding them to reflect on their progress and planning re-teaching where needed to address misconceptions and close gaps.
- Review student work and identify strengths and gaps to inform future lesson planning and teaching.
- Use formative and summative assessment to secure students' progress.
- Maintain student records of attainment, progress, and homework.
- Evaluate students' target and performance data and analyse students' progress towards these targets.

Culture and behaviour

- Build a positive inclusive learning environment by implementing clear routines for classroom behaviour, promoting good and courteous behaviour both in classrooms and around the school, in accordance with the academy's behaviour policy.
- Set high expectations for students' behaviour, establishing a framework for discipline with a range of strategies, using praise, sanctions and rewards consistently and fairly.
- Maintain good relationships with students, exercise appropriate authority, and act decisively when necessary.
- Undertake duties before and after lessons and during break times to ensure positive student behaviour across the whole academy.

Specialist Support

- Develop and implement strategies to support communication, social interaction, and emotional regulation.
- Use visual supports, structured routines, and clear communication methods to enhance learning.
- Support pupils' transition between the resource provision and mainstream classes.

Communication and collaboration

- Develop effective professional relationships with colleagues, drawing on subject specialist support when required.
- Work closely with mainstream teachers to promote inclusive practice across the school.
- Provide guidance, modelling, and training for staff on effective strategies for supporting pupils with communication and interaction needs.
- Collaborate with SENDCO, leadership and sponsor special school to ensure high-quality inclusive provision.
- Communicate any academic concerns about students to line-manager and raise pastoral concerns to the relevant Pastoral Leader.
- Contribute to EHCP reviews, reports, and target setting.
- Work with any additional adults to support interventions for students with SEND, incorporating guidance provided by the SENDCO and external professionals.(e.g speech and language therapists, occupational therapists, educational psychologists)
- Deploy support staff effectively, ensuring they have lesson content and learning outcomes in advance.
- Communicate effectively with parents with regard to students' achievements, well-being and behaviour, to ensure that parents are able to support student progress.

Other clauses:

1. The above responsibilities are subject to the general duties and responsibilities contained in the Statement of Teachers' Pay and Conditions. The postholder is expected to work to the best of their ability, to be diligent, honest and ethical in the performance of duties and to conduct personal and professional life to the highest standard such that public confidence in their integrity is sustained.
2. This job description does not form part of the contract of employment and is not a comprehensive definition of the post. The duties of this post may vary from time to time according to the needs of the school/Trust following consultation with the job holder. It will be reviewed periodically.
3. The postholder is expected to participate and engage with workplace learning and development opportunities to continually improve their own performance.
4. The postholder may deal with sensitive material and should maintain confidentiality in all school related matters as set out in their statement of terms and condition of employment.
5. Information about how and why we collect your data can be found in the "Lift Schools Privacy Notice for Staff" which you are required to comply with.

6. You are expected to take reasonable care of your own health and safety and to be mindful of the safety of others, to cooperate with instructions, to minimise and mitigate potential hazards and risks to others and to appropriately report hazards, illnesses or injuries in accordance with our Health & Safety Policy.

Safeguarding:

At Lift Schools we are committed to ensuring the highest levels of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our students, and we expect all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We adopt a robust, fair and consistent recruitment process which is inline with Keeping Children Safe in Education guidance. This includes online checks for shortlisted candidates. All offers of employment are subject to an Enhanced DBS check, references, and where applicable, a prohibition from teaching check, and you are required to complete them and advise us immediately should you subsequently be convicted of an offence.

Equality, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion:

At Lift Schools, we want all of our employees to feel included bringing their passion, creativity and individuality to work. We value all cultures, backgrounds and experiences, and we truly believe that diversity drives innovation.
